Please list the event(s) you would like to see and fax them to 703-993-8650 with a copy of your class schedule the Tuesday the week before the week of the event. For example: If you would like to see the Martha Graham Dance Company on Friday, October 26, 2007, you can fax your request as early as October 16, 2007. Please see the Center for the Arts website (www.gmu.edu/cfa) for calendar information, available dates and the student ticket policy. For any questions, please call the Ticket Office at 703-993-2787.

EVENT NAME	DATE & TIME	# FREE TICKETS <small>(1 or 2, per ID)</small>	COMPANION TICKET <small>(limit 1 per student ID)</small>	FULL PRICE TICKETS	COURSE & SECTION <small>(only if fulfilling a class assignment)</small>

* For some performances there are a limited number of student tickets available. For these performances, students are allowed only one free ticket, although they may obtain a second free ticket 30 minutes before the performance, if available. Performances with limited student tickets are noted. Part time students attending a performance as a class requirement are exempt from the credit hour criteria and may pickup tickets using the same procedure as full time students, as long as student tickets remain available. Students may also buy one discounted companion ticket for most performances. Additional tickets are available at full price.

If you wish to purchase a companion and/or full price ticket, please provide payment information below:
