GMU Yearbook (Video) – Student Editor Application

Expectations:

Both the yearbook class itself and the Communication Department will have expectations of the student editor of the video yearbook. Please review these expectations below.

Yearbook Expectations:

The Video Editor must be able to meet regularly with the yearbook staff to get feedback and provide updates on the progress of the video component of the yearbook.

The Video Editor will be responsible for ensuring all video deadlines are met.

The Video Editor must be willing to professionally work with students of all experience levels.

The Video Editor must support the creativity of all staff members but also has the final say in editing decisions.

The Video Editor must keep the Yearbook Advisor up to date on the progress of the video.

Communication Department Expectations:

All student media leaders for Yearbook, Newspaper, etc. must attend weekly meetings. These are scheduled once all student leaders have their semester schedule in place so they can be planned around everyone's schedule. (Example: The Spring 2014 meetings will be scheduled after the student leaders have received their Spring 2014 class schedules).

All student media leaders for Yearbook, Newspaper, etc. must represent Student Media at key events. Events may include Alumni Weekend, Homecoming, Mason Day, Graduation, etc.

All student media leaders for Yearbook, Newspaper, etc. are expected to work on their responsibilities for "20 hours per week".

Monetary compensation will be paid to all student media leaders.
