

Report of the University Faculty Grievance Committee. March 30, 2017

For the academic year 2016-17, the University Faculty Grievance Committee (Committee) did the following work.

1. There were no grievance cases brought before the Committee this year.
2. In September, the Committee met to welcome a new member, Prof. Carol Cleaveland, and to review our work from the previous year. The Committee also discussed the Senate President's request for Committee procedures.
3. In February, the Committee met to discuss its draft of Committee procedures.
4. In February, the Committee submitted its draft of Committee procedures to the Senate.
5. In February, the Committee responded to the Provost Presidential Survey.

John Farina
Chair