*Required Information

This waiver is only valid for students using the 2007-2008 university catalog.

For continuing/returning GMU students (not students matriculating for the first time in the 2007 fall term), who are using the 101-202 series towards fulfillment of the B.A. degree foreign language general education requirement in the College of Humanities and Social Sciences, and who are graduating under all the degree requirements of the 2007-2008 University Catalog.

Please note that you must change or have changed your graduating catalog to 2007-2008 before your request can be reviewed.

You can petition to use 201 to complete the foreign language general education requirement, if

You are planning to complete all degree requirements and graduate at the end of the 2007 fall term, having passed 201, or if

You are planning to complete all degree requirements and graduate at the end of the 2008 spring term, having passed 201 by the conclusion of the 2008 spring term, or if

You passed 201 by the end of the 2006 fall term, or if

There are other serious disadvantages. Please explain in detail.

If you think that your circumstance fits one of the above four categories, please provide a written explanation on the back of this sheet about the serious graduation disadvantage that you will encounter by having to take 202. This special waiver process will be in effect through the 2008 summer graduation.

Inappropriate use of this waiver will constitute an honor code violation

Read and Sign: I understand that requests are not effective unless approved by the CHSS Student Policies and Appeals Committee. I certify that the above information is accurate and not in violation of the Honor Code. Acceptance of requests for Committee's review does not guarantee approval or a definite date when a decision can be reached. I have read and will comply with the rules, regulations, requirements and academic policies of the college and university.
