

The Globalization and Society in India (GSI) Working Group invite you to a

Movie Viewing

followed by a Discussion with the Director

Mr. Ranjan Kamath

Time: 11:00 a.m.

Date: Friday, May 6th, 2011

Location: JC 3rd Floor Meeting Rm B

Movie viewing will be accompanied by light refreshments

Tanvir Ka Safarnama (Tanvir's Travelogue)

SYNOPSIS: In May 2009, Habib Tanvir's Naya Theatre completed 50 years of regaling audiences around the world with an essentially Indian theatre. The movie is the enthralling theatrical journey that happens when a pipe-smoking urban sophisticate like Habib Tanvir travels via Europe to return to his homeland - in Chhattisgarh - to create an essentially Indian theatre by working with unschooled, uneducated villagers. Tanvir's adaptations of Shakespeare, Brecht and Indian Sanskrit classics have regaled audiences around the world with humor and humanism. This film joins the joys, trials and tribulations of Habib Tanvir and Naya Theatre on the road over two years...

Language: In Hindi with English subtitles.

Length: 78 minutes

Produced by: RKO Moving Media Copyright 2007 RKO Moving Media P Ltd.

Edited, Photographed & Directed by Ranjan Kamath

About the Director: Ranjan Kamath graduated with an Associate's degree from the Trinity College of Music, London. He began working in Calcutta's music and theater world soon after, both as an actor and stage/lighting designer. He then, went on to work as an assistant director in Bombay on documentaries and short films. He has completed his post-graduation from London International Film School with a distinction in Cinematography and has been working as a producer and director/cinematographer, on Indian features, international co-productions and short features for the BBC, Channel Four, National Geographic, Discovery Channel, and others.

For additional information please contact:
Supriya Baily (sbaily1@gmu.edu.), or Chaitanya Ravi (chaitanyaravi96@gmail.com), or Nayantara Sheoran (nsheoran@gmu.edu)

Sponsored by the Center for Global Studies